We need to continue to find ways to ensure all of us feel safe on campus. At a time when many on the date for the best of the see that the state of the seed of
e. uneffention-leaders for the funiversity, including incoming in termodrice a sense or safety fiere countries. provist and dearl enthe reculty, table tabuat, and moderning vice pretribent for student met, thirds modes after a area, handwidthe tabuat point in being being being men four combinerations and centories outle we can and must do better.
reints and informations were of the core of our educational missional the free each efficient visu Charlièmente i sitte d'onctin étatemen primpérenné autébergamente : s, we do not believe that all ideas have equal value. We expressing, discussing, and debating idea the contrast rejetor and will are the rest wife and commence baldens it the addition of a instance. ad a better framework to make this exchangein all that we do. We need to develop skills a ible without threatening community members. The Administration will work with JUCC andnoss thers to develop a framework that will help better foster this exchange. We will have proposals. ady for discussion this fall.
Yours,

Mark Burstein

President, Lawrence University

Mark