you should approach that resident and reasonably request that the behavior cease. Your Resident Advisor, Residence Life Coordinator, and other Housing Professional Staff are available to give advice about ways to make confrontational situations more comfortable.

In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the department does not permit student conduct records unless the resident signs a waiver allowing us to release this information.

Student Responsibilities

Living in a community is not always easy. Each of us comes from different backgrounds and has different expectations for living in a group environment. The established guidelines are intended to give you and your neighbors a general set of standards by which you can ensure that your rights and responsibilities are dearly defined and protected. Residents are expected to become familiar with and adhere to all guidelines and information contained in this handbook and the Housing & Residence Life and Dining License Agreement. Click here to access the agreement.

Residents are responsible for demonstrating the ability and a willingness to establish and maintain a reasonable relationship with their roommate or suitemates.

Residents are responsible for ensuring that their guests know and adhere to all University and Residence Life guidelines and policies. Residents can be held responsible, including financially, for the actions of their guests in and around the residence halls.

Residents have a responsibility to remove themselves from any situation during which a violation is occurring. All persons present during a violation may be held responsible for the violation. Residents can also be held responsible for any violation that occurs in their room (even if they are not present).

Residents are responsible for community common areas so that if damage occurs and billing follows, residents can and will be held financially accountable.

In order to h