

OFFICE OF THE DEAN

Dear UCLA Anderson Community:

On Tuesday, June 2, we were alerted to troubling conduct by one of our lecturers in the undergraduate accounting program. Our concerns have now been shared with all appropriate UCLA investigative offices.

Providing a safe, respectful and equitable environment in which students can effectively learn is fundamental to UCLA's mission. We share common principles power, is not acceptable.

This lecturer is currently on leave from campus. His courses have been reassigned to other instructors.

If anyone in our community ever feels unfairly treated or maligned because of identity, I urge you to contact Asst. Dean Heather Caruso or Professor Brett Trueman, our Equity, Diversity and Inclusion leaders for students, staff and faculty. You are also free at any time to report an incident of concern directly to

UCLA's EDI office.

Further, I ask that each of us — students, faculty and staff — help foster a strong Anderson culture of inclusivity that will assure effective learning for all students. In tQ compassion in all of our words and actions.

Best,

Tony Bernardo

Antonio Bernardo

Dean and John E. Anderson Chair in Management