recognized organizations recently. A student Jermaine Lane submitted an application to start a students for Life Club. As a student requirements for recognition include submission of a group constitution and contact information for officers and specification of the prospective club's category. Categories include: Sports Club, Cultural, Special Interest, Religious, Academic, Vocational, Professional, Service, Leadership, Departmental and Honorary.

Lane's application satisfied AAAS requirements. However, a February letter from AAAS Club and Organization Standards Board Director Jarrett Benendorfer informed Lane that his application had been denied. Benendorfer wrote:
