Dear Mr. Kissell:

This is in response to your letter of February 11, 2009 concerning Professor Jonathan Goldstein.

We will not comment on an on-going investigation. Not only would such a comment violate the College's confidentiality policies, but it would also potentially prejudice the outcome of the investigation. Any procedures or processes used by the College do and will strictly comply with the College's policies and the Faculty Handbook.

Very truly yours,

Barry Mills
